Class Song

Kenny Chesney - "I Go Back"
"Jack and Diane" painted a picture of my life and my dreams,
Suddenly this crazy world made more sense to me
Well I heard it today and I couldn't help but sing along
Cause everytime I hear that song.

I go back to a two toned short bed Chevy Drivin my first love out to the levooy
Livin life with no sense of time
And I go back to the feel of a fifty yard line
A blanket, a girl, some raspberry wine
Wishin time would stop right in its tracks
Everytime I hear that song, I go back

I used to rock all night long to "Keep On Rockin Me Baby"
Srat parties, college bars, just tryin to impress the ladies
I heard it today and I couldn't help but sing along
Cause everytime I hear that song.

I go back to the smell of an old gym floor
The taste of salt on the Carolina shore
After graduation and drinkin goodbye to friends
And I go back to watchin summer fade to fall
Growin up too fast and I do recall
Wishin time would stop right in its tracks
Everytime I hear that song, I go back, I go back

We all have a song that somehow stamped our lives
Takes us to another place and time

So I go back to a pew, preacher, and a choir
Singin bout God, brimstone, and fire
And the smell of Sunday chicken after church
And I go back to the loss of a real good friend
And the sixteen summers I shared with him
Now "Only The Good Die Young" stops me in my tracks
Everytime I hear that song,

I go back.
To the feel of a fifty yard line
A blanket, a girl, some raspberry wine
I go back.

To watchin summer fade to fall
Growin up too fast and I do recall.
I go back.

To the loss of a real good friend
And the sixteen summers I shared with him.
I go back. I go back. I go back

Alicia Blattert

"The best memory is either all the bus rides or our Adrian team camp when we won the overtime tournament and kicked everyone's butt. The rooms and Febreeze and definitely sharing a room with Jessica."

Kayla Gates

"One day in practice, we were not allowed to shoot anything but lay-ups. Amanda asked coach if she could shoot it if they are within hacking range. Everyone started to laugh."

Stephanie Booms

"My best memory of basketball was at practice. We were working on the stall offense, and Amanda asked if she should shoot the ball if the defender was in 'hacking range.' It was the funniest thing ever."

Katie Madis

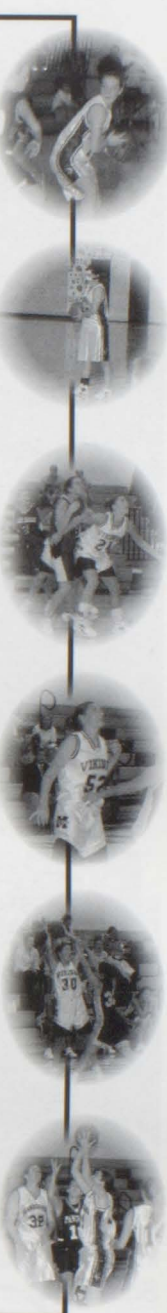

"What I remember the most is the good times with the teammates. Teammates and friends got me through the tough practices and made my basketball seasons great."

Allison Rix

My favorite memories would definitely have to be bus talk, wyona's on the bus, soggy pie, "hacking" range, and digging holes.

Jessica Schlinkert

"My favorite basketball moment was probably Adrian camp this past summer. Rooming with Alicia was the best part of the camp, but also the fact that we showed everyone there how good we could be."

I am really happy with the progress the team made although our win/loss record did not indicate that. They had tremendous attitudes and continued to work through the ups and downs- that all started with the excellent leadership of senior captain, Kyle Rosechnitzke. We feel this year's team has built the foundation for upcoming success in our program!"

MHS Secretaries

We at Marysville High School are very lucky to have the secretaries we do. Our school would be lost in so many ways without them, and we owe them a big thank you every single year. Without them, our school would be a huge mess!

Everyday, they help us by sending out notices, filing, doing attendance, and many others. Sometimes, we fail to realize how much of an impact they truly do make on our school. They have one of the most stressful jobs in the building, having to deal with so many different things at once. We need to recognize them, and that's what we're doing. Ladies, we hope you realize how much we honestly appreciate you and your hard work!

Dear Yearbook Staff:

Thanks for making another great yearbook. I know the new program this year was a bit difficult, but all of you persevered. No one will ever understand what goes in to making a yearbook, so no matter what anyone says to you about the book or particular pages, know that you did your best and that is all anyone can ask of you. It has been a pleasure having all of you in class. I couldn't have gotten through this year without you. To the seniors, I will miss you more than you know. You're the best!

Love, Mrs. B. (Barnball)
